

Advising Information for Undergraduate Students in Speech-Language-Hearing: Sciences & Disorders (SPLH) Summer and Fall 2008

The Department of Speech-Language-Hearing has set aside the dates of March 24-April 21, 2008 for advising students interested in majoring in SPLH. Please make an appointment with your advisor. If you do not have an advisor in the department, contact Wanda Lowe at 864-0634 or wlowe@ku.edu to be assigned an advisor. Please bring your ARTS form to your advising appointment. If you are unable to obtain your ARTS form online, Wanda Lowe can provide one for you.

Tentative earliest opportunity to enroll online:

Seniors – April 1
Juniors – April 4
Sophomores – April 9
Freshmen – April 15
Non-degree seeking – April 21

Please note that you will need to clear all holds before you will be able to enroll. Check Enroll & Pay at <https://sa.ku.edu/psp/saku/?cmd=login> to see if you have any holds.

New students (initial term Fall 2007 or Spring 2008) will receive an advising hold. These students should visit with an advisor in the University Advising Center (UAC) or in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences Student Academic Services office (CLAS SAS) to have the hold removed.

Continuing students who have not declared a major will receive an advising hold. This can be removed at CLAS SAS, 109 Strong Hall.

Students who are on probation will also receive a hold. These students should visit at CLAS SAS, 109 Strong Hall to complete a contract and have the hold removed.
