Wednesday, November 6, 10:00 am & 7:00 pm
We Were Children Documentary
Haskell Cultural Center & Museum
Questions Call: 785-766-5000

Friday, November 8, 12:00 pm—1:00 pm
“Native American Graves Protection & Repatriation Act: A Historical Perspective
Peter Welsh, Ph.D., Director, Museum Studies
KU Spencer Museum of Art, Reception Room

Friday, November 8, 2:30 pm—10:00 pm
Haskell Veteran’s Celebration Traditional Powwow
Gourd Dancing & Grand Entry
Tecumseh Hall, Haskell Indian Nations University

Saturday, November 9, 10:30 am—11:30 am
Saturday Art Adventure: Native American Beadwork Family Friendly tour, learn about NA traditions, create own beadwork master pieces
Ages 5-8, On-Site Registration
KU Spencer Museum of Art

Saturday, November 9, 1:00 pm
AIHREA Community Research Forum & Powwow
Douglas County Fair Grounds
www.aihrea.org/htdocs/events.html

Monday, November 11, 4:00 pm—5:30 pm
“Climate Change, Indigenous Peoples, and the Search for Legal Remedies” Book talk & signing
Elizabeth Kronk-Warner, J.D., Director, Tribal Law & Gov’t Center, School of Law, KU
Jayhawk Ink—KU Memorial Union
Sponsors: KU School of Law, KU Tribal Law & Gov’t Center, KU Native Faculty and Staff Council, Edward Elger Publishing

Wednesday, November 13, 4:00 pm
We Were Children Documentary
Haskell Cultural Center & Museum
Questions Call: 785-766-5000

Thursday, November 14, 6:00 pm—7:00 pm
“Still Here to Tell Our Stories”
Panel Presentation lead by Freda Gipp and invited guests from Haskell Indian Nations University
Governor’s Room, KS Memorial Union
Sponsor: KU Native Faculty and Staff Council

For more information contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at (785)644-4350.
Also see the KU Indigenous Studies and American Indian Health Research & Education Alliance (AIHREA) website for events at KU-Lawrence, KU Medical Center, Haskell Indian Nations University and surrounding areas

Wednesday, November 20, 4:00 pm—5:00 pm
The Uncommon Book, Native American Perspective
Blane Harding
Office of Multicultural Affairs, Classroom 116

Thursday, November 21, 3:30 pm—5:00 pm
“Competitive Victimhood as a Response to Accusations of In-Group Harm Doing”
Mark Landua, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Psychology, KU
KU Hall Center for Humanities, Seminar Room

Friday, November 22, 3:00 pm Reception, 3:00 pm Talk “Toward Respect and Reciprocity: Ethics in Collaborations across Indigenous Knowledges and Climate Change Science”
Kyle Powys Whyte, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Psychology, KU
The Commons, KU

Later Events
March 7, 2014, KU Tribal Law Conference, Green Hall
April 29, 2014, 14th Annual KU-HINU Undergraduate Research Symposium, Tecumseh Hall, HINU
Native American Heritage Month Events
November 2013
Presented by Haskell Indian Nations University
In Conjunction with
The University of Kansas

Wednesday, November 6th 7pm
Haskell Auditorium

Native American Movie Month Movie Night “Smoke Signals”

Friday, November 8th 12pm-1pm
KU Spencer Museum of Art, Reception Room

“Native American Graves Protection & Repatriation Act: A Historical Perspective”
Peter Welsh, Ph.D., Director, Museum Studies, U. of Kansas

Friday, November 8th 3pm-5pm
Tecumseh

Veteran’s Pow-Wow Gourd Dancing

Friday, November 8th 6pm
Tecumseh

Veteran’s Pow-Wow Grand Entry

Saturday, November 9th 10:30-11:30am
KU Spencer Museum of Art

Saturday Art Adventures: Native American Beadwork.
Family friendly tour, learn about NA art traditions, create own beaded masterpieces. Ages 5-8; On-site registration.

Saturday, November 9th 1pm
Douglas County Fairgrounds

AIHREA Community Research Forum & Powwow
http://www.aihrea.org/hidocs/events.html

Monday, November 11th 4-5:30pm
Jayhawk Ink - KU Memorial Union
Sponsors: KU School of Law, KU Tribal Law & Gov’t Center, KU Native Faculty & Staff Council, Edward Elger Publishing

Elizabeth Kronk-Warner, J.D., Director, Tribal Law & Gov’t Center, School of Law, U. of Kansas

Tuesday, November 12th 3pm-4:30pm
Haskell Cultural Center

Sovereignty in Motion and on the Ground
Panel: Mary Stuckey, JD and Joshua Arce, JD

Thursday, November 14th 4pm-6pm
Curtis Hall

Traditional Native American Meal

Thursday, November 14th 4pm-5:30pm
Haskell Cultural Center

Boarding Schools: Disruption and Resiliency
Panel: Dr. Eric Anderson, Dr. Venida Chenault, Dr. Mike Tosee

Thursday, November 14th 6-7pm
Governor’s Room, KU Memorial Union
Sponsor: KU Native Faculty & Staff Council

“Still Here to Tell Our Stories”
Panel presentation lead by Freda Gipp and invited guests from Haskell Indian Nations University

Friday, November 15th 7pm
Haskell Auditorium

Native American Movie Month Movie Night “TBD”

Thursday, November 21st 7pm
Haskell Auditorium

MBB -Native American Student Talent Show

Thursday, November 21st TBA
Haskell Auditorium

Intertribal Cultural Night (pending)

Friday, November 22nd 6:30pm
Haskell Auditorium

Hand game Tournament
AIHREA Community Research Forum & Powwow
November 9th, 2013
Douglas County Fairgrounds
1930 Harper St, Lawrence KS. 66046

Grand Entry at 1PM

Host Drum: Little Soldier
MC: Lance Cully
AD: Travis Brown
Head Man: Isaiah Stewart
Head Lady: Rianne White

Boys 7-17 combined Girls 7-17 combined
Men & Women 18-54
Grass, Traditional, Straight, & Fancy
Buckskin, Cloth, Fancy, & Jingle
Men & Women Golden Age 55 and over

3 Places - All categories

All community members who participate in our research forum can earn a free T-shirt by learning about our programs and giving us feedback. (shirt design shown above)

For more information contact Jason Hale
Phone: (913) 945-7822
Cell: (785) 554-7108
Email: jhale-aff@kumc.edu

AIHREA and the University of Kansas Medical Center are not responsible for any thefts or injuries. No pets, drugs, alcohol, or weapons allowed.
Elizabeth Kronk Warner
KU Associate Professor of Law
Book Talk & Signing

Monday
November 11
4:00-5:30 p.m.
Jayhawk Ink Lounge
Kansas Union level 2

785-864-4431